

National Association for Music Education
& Rowman and Littlefield Education Present:

Quick Reference for Band Directors

By Ronald E. Kearns

"Everything you need to know at your fingertips—from a director who has done it all. An excellent resource for new directors as well as experienced ones."—Sally Wagner, director of bands, Eleanor Roosevelt High School, Greenbelt, Maryland

Quick Reference for Band Directors is a go-to guide for new and experienced band directors. With tips on recruiting and retaining members, preparing lesson plans and program objectives, developing a booster group, budgeting, classroom management, using technology, and making emergency repairs, this book will soon number among your closest advisors. Learn how to build, maintain, and improve your program. Get tips on how to structure concert band, symphonic band, wind ensemble, marching band, small ensembles, jazz band, and pep band while developing musicianship. The book focuses on high school band programs but offers advice for elementary and middle school directors as well. Read it sequentially or select the chapters most pertinent to you. You'll come back again and again to benefit from the author's thirty years of teaching.

Ron Kearns is a retired band director, performing artist and record producer. He adjudicates festivals and conducts clinics throughout the United States and Canada.

To order, visit www.rowmaneducation.com, click on Co-Publishers or call 1-800-462-6420

This book is a co-publication between the National Association for Music Education and Rowman and Littlefield Education

National Association for Music Education